

Winter weather advisory till 6 am for areas along and south of the I-44 corridor this morning. Areas along and east of Highway 63, the advisory may have to be locally extended till 8am as snow will be ending a little later.

The heaviest snowfall will be from southern Laclede County, southern Pulaski, southern Phelps, northern Texas County, northern Wright, and Dent County. This area may see a total of 1 to 3 inches. Snow should be ending by 6 am for areas along Highway 65 and westward. Snow should end by 8 am for areas along Highway 63 and the eastern Ozarks.